Honors, AP, and Dual Credit Courses

Providence offers a variety of Honors, AP, and Dual Credit courses (DC is offered through Colorado Christian University). Honors and AP courses require additional reading and writing (including summer work for some Honors courses), additional assignments and assessments, and broader and deeper analysis and engagement in the subject matter. Students must meet specific prerequisites to be eligible for enrollment in Honors courses. Dual Credit courses do not require additional work and students receive both high school and college credit for the course.

The Following Courses are Available at Providence:

- Honors Calculus (12)
- Honors English (9-12)
- Honors English Colloquium (10-12)
- Honors Latin (9 & 10)
- Honors Rhetoric (11 & 12)
- AP English: Language & Composition
- AP European History
- AP Calculus AB
- AP United States History
- DC 12 English (CCU, ENG 203)
- DC 11 History (CCU, HIS 186)
- DC 12 Rhetoric (CCU, COM 103)

Senior Thesis & Rhetoric

As a capstone to two years of Rhetoric class, all seniors write lengthy (15-18 page) Rhetoric thesis papers that address a political, cultural, or theological issue of controversy. Additionally, they must prepare a memorized oral presentation, consisting of a 15-minute speech and a 20-minute defense before a panel of faculty and expert adjudicators.

Providence School Life

Activities, Leadership, and Student Life

Providence cultivates leadership, service, and community through its House System for grades 7-12, providing opportunities for student government, peer mentoring, and character development. Students may also participate in a range of extracurricular activities such as athletics, drama, and clubs.

Athletic offerings include boys' and girls' soccer, girls' volleyball, boys' and girls' basketball, boys' and girls' track and field, and boys' lacrosse. The Fine Arts program features musical and drama productions as well as honors art, honors choir, and honors band. Students may also participate in a host of clubs: art, soccer, linguistics, tea, Latin, needle arts, chess, guitar, food, math, coding, Spanish, school spirit, and missions.

Our Protocol program offers training in manners and etiquette for grade 9-12. Rising seniors take part in a culminating Grand Tour trip to Greece, Italy, and England, highlighting curricular studies in art, history, philosophy, and literature.
